

What are the deadlines for dropping classes and obtaining a refund?

Visit the Owens homepage at www.owens.edu. Click on Class Schedule, and using your course CRN (course registration number) look for your specific class. You will be able to view add and drop deadlines, as well as all refund deadlines for your specific course. If you drop all classes for a semester, you will still owe all non-refundable fees even if you drop classes before the 100% refund deadline.

Be aware if you received financial aid for the semester, and you plan to drop classes, you should contact Oserve to ask about how a drop can impact your future financial aid eligibility.

Lack of attendance does not constitute eligibility to receive refunds, or guarantee the waiver of College fees. To be eligible for a refund, students must follow the official withdrawal procedures that can be found at the Registration \(Add/Drop Class\) Instructions webpage. The date of withdrawal processed through the Records Office is the date used to determine the amount of tuition and fees that are refunded.
