

What is the Selective Service requirement?

Ohio law requires that all males who are not in compliance with the Federal Selective Service laws pay out of state tuition fees. Federal law requires that all males who are eighteen through twenty-five years of age must be registered with Selective Service. Information on requirements, how to register and details on obtaining Selective Service verification can be found by visiting www.sss.gov. Selective Service registration can also be completed by visiting any U.S. Post Office.
