

Can students view who has accessed information through proxy access?

Yes. By clicking on the name proxy, the profile will be expanded by the student. Next, the student can click on the History tab to review the activity for that proxy. The webpage will display the most recent activity including access to information items being granted, information about items being disabled, and details of the proxy's access including what information has been viewed

Article ID: 264

Last updated: 23 Apr, 2013

Revision: 1

Information Technology Services -> Ozone -> Ozone Proxy Access -> Can students view who has accessed information through proxy access?

<https://www2.owens.edu/faq/entry/264/>