

What type of events does Owens provide audiovisual support for?

Owens Community College provides audiovisual support for most events held on campus, both internal and external. Internal events are events held by faculty, staff, or student organizations for the benefit of Owens Community College. External events are events held by outside organizations or individuals, or faculty or staff for personal reasons. These include:

- Presentations
- Meetings
- Ceremonies
- Sporting Events
- Fairs and Festivals
- Banquets
- Parties

Please note additional charges will apply for external clients for use of audiovisual equipment or technician after normal hours. Additional charges may apply for staff or faculty for use of technician after normal hours.
