

Examples of Phishing/Virus emails

This notice is being sent because a large number of Owens employee mailboxes have been the target of a new phishing attempt. If you are not expecting an email and/or don't recognize the sender please do not open it or any attachment. Please delete the email immediately. If you have opened the email please contact the ITS Help Desk x7120 immediately.

Please note that links in the following example emails have been disabled and are shown for informational purposes only. Do not use these links in your internet browser.

Some phishing attempts are below:

Dear michael_aked,

Please find the attached copy invoice which is showing as unpaid on our ledger. I would be grateful if you could look into this matter and advise on an expected payment date.

Many thanks,
