

Is child care available at Owens Community College?

Toledo Area Campus: Yes! The YMCA Child Development Center at Owens C.C. cares for children 6 weeks- 12 years of age. Openings currently exist for all age groups and enrollment tours are encouraged for all who are interested. The center is open to students, faculty and community. The hours of operation are 6:30-6:00 p.m. M-F. To get additional information call 567-661-7404 or email the director at Psattler@ymcatoledo.org. Additional YMCA Child Care information can be found at ymcatoledo.org.

Findlay Campus: The Owens Community College Findlay Child Care Center (operated by Owens Community College) uses the Reggio Emilia philosophy in teaching children. Named after a small town in Italy, the Emilia philosophy stresses reflection, practice and further reflection. The philosophy states that every child has the right to grow and learn in a favorable environment. The preschools in Reggio Emilia are regarded as one of the 10 best early childhood programs in the world, according to several national publications.

Enrollment to the lab school is open to faculty, staff, students, and members of the community.

Tuition rates are available in the office of the Findlay Child Care Center.
