

What is a visiting student?

Visiting students are those interested in attending Owens for a short period of time and are considered non-degree seeking. There are two types of visiting students: transient and guest. Transient students are those who are enrolled at another accredited college or university and intend to apply their Owens Community College credits to a degree from their home institution. Guest students are those who are taking a limited number of courses for credit or personal interest.

Article ID: 553

Last updated: 22 Apr, 2014

Revision: 2

Visiting (Transient/Guest) Students -> What is a visiting student?

<https://www2.owens.edu/faq/entry/553/>