How do I switch to display on both the monitor and projector?

To change the display settings:

1. While holding down the Windows key, press and release the P key.

2. Click Duplicate to show the same image from the computer on the projection screen.